

IDENTIFYING CASES FOR ELDERCARE COORDINATION

Do you recognize any of these characteristics?

CASE CHARACTERISTICS	✓
Mediation has reached an impasse
Multiple motions to the court; high rates of litigation over non-legal issues
Imbalance of power – some family members have attorneys and others do not or all parties self-represented
Constant disputes about un-measurable or unsubstantiated items
Possessive or controlling behavior toward the elder
Difficulty in others separating elder’s needs and desires from their own; high degree of rigid thinking; win/lose mentality
Chronic disputes over access and support
Coalitions/sibling splitting entrenched
Possible endangerment of elder or other parties
History of domestic violence in family
Cross allegations of family members; possible safety concerns
Drug/alcohol abuse
Elder being denied access to family member(s) and/or significant others
Parties being denied access to information
When money is used as bargaining tool or being withheld for care of the elder
High emotionality expressed by parties in court; verbal abuse; loud quarreling
Parties are not able to work cooperatively with collaterals and resources for the elder
Number of collaterals/agencies involved
Multiple motions on non-legal issues regarding care and safety of the elder
Multiple calls to APS regarding issues of family conflict regarding an elder
Case completed with APS where concerns that family conflict may continue to impede welfare of elder
Competing applications for appointment as guardian citing non-legal reasons why one applicant is more appropriate than another
Guardian or other authorized decision-maker constantly being questioned and second guessed
Chronic interference with elder’s care or decisions affecting elder’s welfare
Suspicion – founded or unfounded – of financial mismanagement (by elder or by elder’s authorized decision-maker
Others’ conflict may place elder in jeopardy	