

THE SENIOR SOURCE

JULIE M. KRAWCZYK
Director, Elder Financial Safety Center

Julie Krawczyk serves as the Director of the Elder Financial Safety Center at The Senior Source where she oversees the operations for a unique, first of its kind Center in the nation designed to address all aspects of older adults' financial security in Dallas County. The Elder Financial Safety Center is a collaborative between The Senior Source, Dallas County Probate Courts and Dallas County District Attorney's Office that offers prevention, protection and prosecution services.

Julie is a capacity builder who leverages human resources, organizational capital and institutional frameworks to evaluate and address critical issues facing nonprofits, build successful, replicable programs and revitalize failing programs helping to deliver the message of an organization's mission today and into the future. Recognized for her energy, wit, and candor and collaborative and strategic approach to tackling major projects, Julie is solution-focused by nature. She holds a Master of Arts in Management from Dallas Baptist University and B.S. in Psychology and English from Southern Vermont College.

Julie is an employee of The Senior Source that has served greater Dallas as the go-to nonprofit for aging services since 1961. The Senior Source assists older adults, at all income levels, from the most active to the very frail.
