

Bob Jackson has been the AARP Texas State Director since 2005. Bob first joined AARP as a legislative consultant in 2000. An attorney by training, he was previously a partner in Boyer and Jackson, P.A. in Sarasota, Florida, where he practiced elder law. Bob served as general counsel and legislative affairs director for the Florida Department of Elder Affairs and as assistant general counsel for the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation. He is an honors graduate of the Florida State University College of Law.

Diana Noel is a Senior Legislative Representative with AARP's Department of Government Affairs. Since joining AARP in 2011, Diana has served as an issue expert primarily in the areas of elder abuse, financial exploitation, adult guardianship, power of attorney, and asset protection. Prior to joining AARP, Diana served as the Director of the Labor and Economic Development Committee with the National Conference of State Legislatures. Diana graduated from the University of Maryland College Park with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Government and Politics and received her Master of Public Administration degree from Bowie State University.