

BIO
Susan P. Weinstein, Esq.
Court Consultant
National Center for State Courts

Susan P. Weinstein, Esq. began her law career in a large, international law firm and left to work as an appellate criminal attorney in a state attorney general's office. After her state work, she focused on alternatives to incarceration for the National District Attorney's Association. She helped to establish the National Association of Drug Court Professionals, where she worked for eight years as its chief counsel and was the Director of State and Federal Affairs for the National Alliance for Model State Drug Laws. She is a committee member on the National Sheriff's Association's Drug Enforcement Committee, an Advisory Panel Member for the Addiction and Public Policy Initiative, O'Neill Institute for National & Global Health Law, Georgetown University Law Center, a board member for the Aquila Recovery Foundation, and served as a Public Safety and Justice, Transition Team Member for two Washington DC mayors.

Ms. Weinstein has authored numerous publications and presented at various conferences on the intersection of criminal law and substance abuse. She received her juris doctorate, magna cum laude, from Syracuse University's College of Law and her Bachelor of Business Administration from George Washington University. She is a member of the bars of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the State of New Jersey, and the District of Columbia.