

Korey Elger M.S.W.
Permanency Manager
Colorado Department of Human Services (CDHS)

Korey Elger M.S.W. is the Permanency Manager with the Colorado Department of Human Services (CDHS). Ms. Elger has been working at both the county and state levels for over 20 years in a variety of roles in the agencies.

In 2014, Ms. Elger began her work at CDHS, where she now supervises the permanency team that includes, ongoing practice, permanency practice, foster care, kinship care, ICWA, and Adoption practice. Ms. Elger's areas of specialization include assessment, permanency, and supervising child welfare teams. She has extensive training in trauma, permanency, well-being, safety, and worker resilience. Ms. Elger is the Colorado Department of Human Services representative on the Court Improvement Executive team and has worked extensively on Colorado Performance Improvement Plan. Ms. Elger has a Master's degree in Social Work from the University of Denver with an emphasis in child welfare.