

Legal Assistance Program – Stephanie Howell, Chief Legal Assistant, Office of the Staff Judge Advocate (OSJA) for the 4th Infantry Division and Fort Carson, Colorado

Each branch of the military is required to provide legal assistance to service members and their dependents. This session will provide an overview of the program (particularly for the Army and Air Force), including a discussion on the procedures for wills and estate planning, military testamentary instruments, and other military-specific considerations in estate planning.